

GRAND VILLA ARGENTINA

The Grand Villa Argentina was built as a gilded private residence at the beginning of the 20th century and converted into a hotel complex in the 1950s, thus creating an exclusive enclave just minutes from the gates of Dubrovnik's Old Town.

Interiors of Grand Villa Argentina combine sophisticated décor; historic architecture, stylish furniture and rich fabrics. Villa Argentina is the initial part of the hotel built in the 1920's, and rooms retain their original architecture, with high ceilings and small stone balconies, offering great views. Hotel Argentina forms the modern part of Grand Villa Argentina, harmoniously combining the old and the new. All of 131 rooms and suites feature modern amenities and majority of them magnificent views to the sea and Old Town Dubrovnik.

Elegant exclusivity and splendid location is what makes this hotel one of the most prestigious destinations on the Adriatic.

LOCATION

This luxurious hotel is ideally situated just outside the famed walls of Dubrovnik. Sitting on a steep edge leading to the sea, views of the Adriatic, the island of Lokrum and to the old harbor of Dubrovnik are available from throughout the hotel, its extensive gardens and seaside beach.

DUBROVNIK

The golden walled city of Dubrovnik is one of the most celebrated beauty spots of the Mediterranean. It is a harmonious showcase of art and civil, religious and military architecture from the Renaissance and Baroque periods. Ragusa was one of the great trading powers of the eastern Mediterranean from the Renaissance to the Napoleonic era. Sidelined from history after that, it was spared ugly industrial development and survived intact, a beautiful city proud of its history and culture.
